

bvek Side Event:

Linking of the national and regional Emission Trading Systems

The Linking of the European Union Emission Trading System with other emission trading systems under preparation especially those in North America (USA, Canada, Mexico) and other OECD countries (Australia, New Zealand, Japan, Korea) will be the next step on the way to a real global system of tradable GHG allowances.

Wednesday, 10th June 2009

19:30-21:00,

Room WIND

- ▶ Introduction in the framework + outlines of a global ETS
Jürgen Hacker, Chair of bvek / UMB Environmental Consultancy Hacker
- ▶ Current status, requirements + opportunities – the EU view
Simon Maar, European Commission, DG Environment
- ▶ State of preparations – the views of:
 - ▶ Catherine Leining, Ministry for the Environment, New Zealand
 - ▶ Kunihiko Shimada, Ministry of the Environment, Japan
 - ▶ Greg McNab, Baker & McKenzie, Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Moderator:

Alexander Sarac, Vice Chair of bvek / EcoSecurities

Plenary and finally open discussions

We also invited the delegations of USA, Mexico, Australia and Korea.

bvek office, Kantstr. 88, 10627 Berlin, Germany, www.bvek.de